

Parent Looks Fors in Pre-K and Kindergarten Classrooms

The teacher
DISPLAY	\square Displays a daily schedule in the classroom (may be a picture schedule) for the children.
	\square Displays a lesson plan with the theme and the activities for the week.
	☐ Has the classroom rules posted (ideally only three – five rules that are positively stated. example: "use walking feet inside" instead of "no running").
	☐ Provides pictures/information regarding emotions and/or managing feelings (examples: feelings poster, conflict resolution cards).
	\square Posts children's artwork throughout the classroom.
	☐ References children's artwork and other materials posted throughout the classroom during conversation or for a lesson/teachable moment.
	\square Makes most, if not all, of the display for children at their eye level.
TEACHER INTERACTIONS	☐ Greets children upon their arrival and welcomes them into the classroom.
	☐ Provides children with individualized attention throughout the day.
	\square Models appropriate behavior throughout the day.
	☐ Helps children to problem solve.
	☐ Focuses on children learning appropriate behaviors, rather than punishment for inappropriate behaviors.
	\square Asks the children questions (open-ended and "how" and "why" questions) throughout the day to promote children's thinking and discussions.
	\square Talks to children with respect, at their eye level, and with a positive tone.
	\square Greets children's questions with enthusiasm and responds in thoughtful ways.
	\square Engages in frequent conversations throughout the day with children.
	\square Uses questions to prompt children's reflections on their understanding and work.
	\square Consistently explains, re-explains, and implements procedures.
	\square Gives clear directions and expectations, written or orally. Multistep directions are broken down and presented visually.
	\square Works well with other teachers in the classroom and demonstrates collaboration and cooperation.

CLASSROOM ENVIRONMENT	☐ Arranges the classroom into learning centers (examples: art, dramatic play, blocks, writing, science, math, music/movement, library, quiet space).
	$\hfill\square$ Has theme/lesson plan aligned learning materials easily accessible to the children through the classroom.
	\square Provides a variety of materials for hands-on learning (rather than worksheets).
	□ Creates a space that is welcoming to all children in the classroom (examples: has children's names posted in cubbies, displays/holds items at children's level, presence of some soft spaces).
	☐ Designs the space to allow children to independently access materials, activities, personal belongings, and basic hygiene items (e.g., tissues) throughout the day.
	\square Sets up the classroom with order and continuity.
	☐ Has daily activities and materials prepared and ready to use. No time is wasted throughout the day with preparation.
	\square Provides different types of activities throughout the day (active, quiet, whole group, small group and/or individualized).
\mathbf{S}	\square Uses learning centers to extend concepts taught in large/small groups.
DAILY ACTIVITIES / LESSONS	☐ Promotes children working together — developing cooperation and friendship skills and also allows children to work independently when they need/want to be alone.
	\square Ensures transitions go smoothly, taking as little time as possible, and children understand what they should be doing.
	☐ Utilizes hands-on activities (rather than worksheets) as the primary method of teaching and learning.
	☐ Individualizes teaching to meet different children's needs (examples: asks different types of questions to different children, provides movement activities for some children when together at whole group, etc.).
	☐ Makes modifications to the lesson as needed (example: While reading a book to the whole group, several children have difficulty participating, so the teacher stops and has the children sing songs and dance instead.).
	\square Helps children to understand the lesson by connecting to real world applications that are meaningful to the children's own lives.
