

MISSISSIPPI CONNECTS

SPRING 2021 • COLLECTION DATA

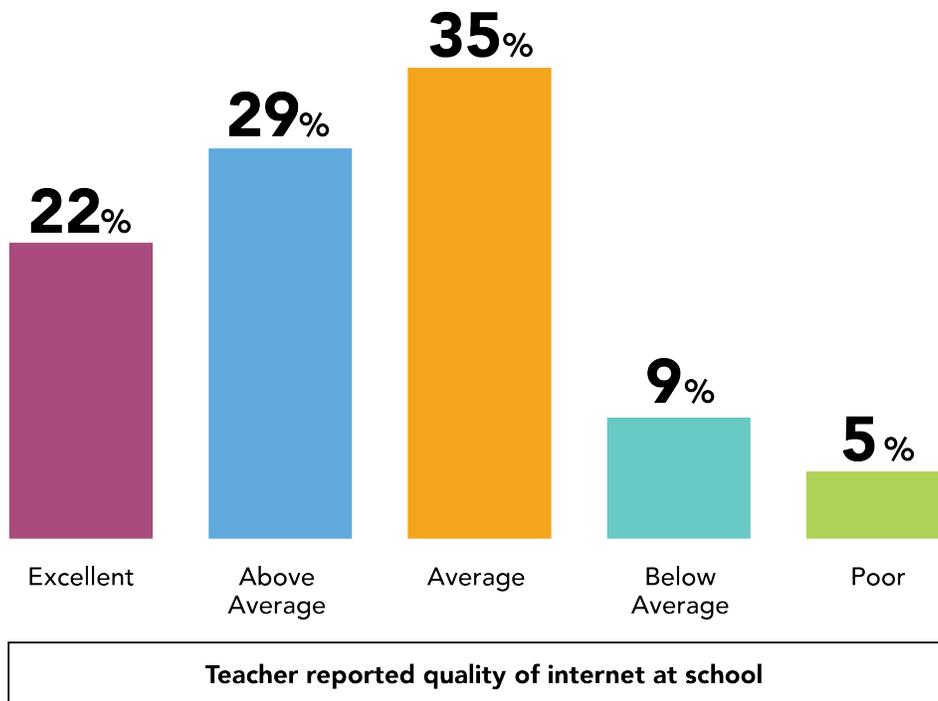

The following data regarding devices were collected via the anonymous Technology & Learning survey issued to administrators, teachers, and 3rd-12th grade students during the 2020-21SY. Note: 100% participation from all groups was not achieved in this survey.

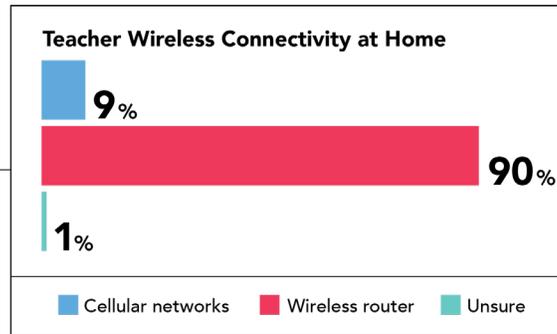

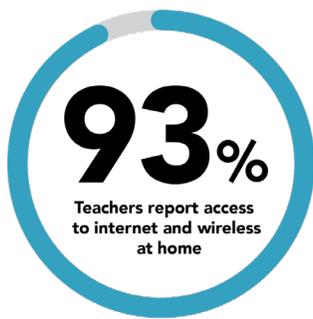

96% of teachers reported a ratio of one to one students to computers in the classroom, with 0% reporting no computers were available for students in the classroom.

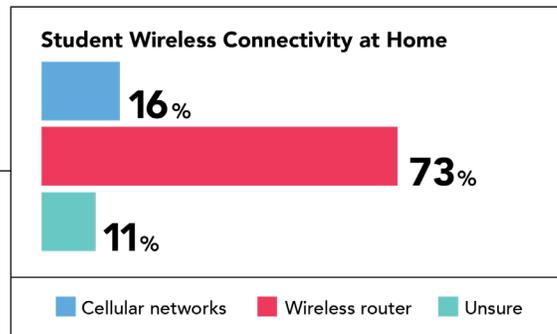

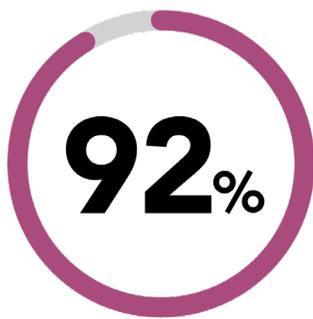

92% of students reported access to a desktop, laptop, or computer at home. 70% of students reported they are allowed to take home a school-owned device, with 59% reporting they can take the device home every night.

51% of teachers report that the quality of internet speed available at school is excellent or above average.

93% of teachers report access to the internet at home. Of the wireless network connectivity available at home, 90% of teachers report their wireless access is provided by a wireless router and 9% by a cellular network.

92% of students report access to the internet at home. Of the wireless network connectivity available at home, 73% of students report their wireless access is provided by a wireless router and 16% by a cellular network.