Professional Standards Requirements for School Nutrition Certification

Professional Standards for school nutrition professionals is a key provision of the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act of 2010 (HHFKA). The final rule, published March 2, 2015, requires a minimum amount of annual training hours for all state directors of school nutrition programs, state director of distributing agencies, school nutrition program directors (School Food Service Administrators), managers, and staff. Required training topics areas will vary according to position and job requirements. Below are the Annual Professional Standards requirements for all School Nutrition Staff:

School Nutrition Staff	Annual Training Hours (Required)	Hours provided by MDE-OCN (Required)
School Food Service Administrators (SFSAs)	Twelve (12) hours/year	8 hours
Program Managers	Ten (10) hours/year	8 hours
NEW Program Managers	Twenty-Four (24) hours (1 st year only)	24 Hours (DECIDE)
Other Staff	Six (6) hours/year	Hours must be provided by Food Service Administrator (FSA)

The documents listed below must be submitted and approved by the Office of Child Nutrition (OCN) within two (2) weeks of hire date.

New SFSAs and Program Managers must submit the following documentation:

1. SFSAs:

- Child Nutrition Application (with revised date of: 2/15/22)
- Transcripts from all colleges/universities attended (must be an Accredited Institution).
- Attend New Administrator Orientation (Parts I & II) within the first year of hire
- ServSafe Certificate (due no later than 30 days after hire date)

2. Program Managers:

- Child Nutrition Application (with revised date of: 2/15/22)
- High School Diploma, High School Transcript or GED records from an Accredited Institution.
- Math Screening Form
- Attend DECIDE to Succeed within the first year of hire.
- ServSafe Certificate (due no later than 30 days after hire date)

Office of Child Nutrition (OCN) Certification Requirements for School Food Service Administrators (SFSAs)

The outlined information below explains the minimum educational qualifications for certification as a School Food Service Administrator (SFSA). The three (3) levels of certification (II, III or IV) are based on the educational background of the individual. ALL SFSAs must meet the minimum requirement of a Bachelor of Science (BS) Degree in order to be certified.

SFSA Level	Degree Levels	Course Requirements
		Food & Nutrition Requirements	Business, Management, Accounting or Educational Administration Requirements
II	Bachelor's (Required)	9 semester hours	6 semester hours
III	Master's	12 semester hours	6 semester hours
IV	Doctoral	15 semester hours	9 semester hours

- Effective July 1, 2015: all newly hired SFSA's must be ServSafe certified within 30 days after initial hire date.
- SFSA's who currently hold a "Level 1" Certification must meet the State Agency requirements of a Level II or above before transferring to another school district.
- Level I Administrators are "Grand-Fathered" into their current School District; therefore, they must contact the Office of Child Nutrition before attempting to transfer to another school district.
- Level I Administrators is no longer an option for initial certification.

After the SFSA has been hired by the school district, they must submit the following information to OCN within two (2) weeks:

- Application for Child Nutrition Certification
- All Official college and/or university transcripts for BS Degree or higher
- ServSafe certificate or obtain certification within 30 days after hire date
- Time Plan Form (if needed)

The new SFSA must attend and successfully complete New Administrator Orientation (NAO) during the first year of employment.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.

School Food Service Administrators (SFSAs)

PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATION

The success of any School Food Service Program depends largely on its personnel. The Food Service Staff should be highly responsible and well trained to successfully fulfill their Child Nutrition job responsibilities. School Food Service Administrators (SFSAs) must have the knowledge and understanding of their roles and responsibilities. This knowledge is gained through the initial “New Administrator Orientation” training provided by the Office of Child Nutrition and other available resources.

Who can receive a Provisional Certification (PC)?

- Only School Food Service Administrators (SFSAs) who meet the minimum educational requirements of having a BS Degree can receive a PC.

What are the guidelines for receiving a Provisional Certification?

- An SFSA who currently has a BS Degree; however, does not have all the required business and/or Nutrition, Dietetics or Hospitality Management coursework can be issued a Provisional Certification.

How long can a SFSA hold a Provisional Certification?

- SFSAs with Provisional Certifications can be certified annually for up to two (2) years.
- All required coursework must be completed within the 2-year timeframe.
- A two-year Provisional Certification cannot be extended past the 2-year date given at the time of initial certification.

What documentation is needed to obtain a Provisional Certification:

- A “Time Plan Form (TPF)” must be submitted and approved by OCN.
- The TPF must provide the name of the accredited college/university, course names & descriptions, course number, credit hours, semester and year courses will be taken.

Child Nutrition Annual Staff Developments & Trainings

The success of all National School Lunch Programs (NSLP), School Breakfast Programs (SBP) and Child and Adult Care Food Programs (CACFP) depends largely on the training of personnel. Managers and Food Service Administrators must have a complete understanding of their roles and responsibilities, through training and detailed instructions.

The following trainings are provided annually:

- State Conference: training session usually held in July of each year; School Food Service Administrators (SFSAs) are required to attend as part of their USDA Professional Standards.
- New Administrator Orientation (NAO): is a required two-part training class for all NEW School Food Service Administrators (SFSAs). Part I is usually held during the month of July and Part II is usually held during the month of September of each year.
- DECIDE to Succeed: An Orientation for New Managers: is a week-long training class for all NEW School District Program Managers (PMs). Usually held during the third (3rd) week of June in Jackson or surrounding areas. Food Service Administrators are highly encouraged to attend.
- Program Managers Recertification: is a one (1) day training course developed yearly as part of their required USDA Professional Standards. Note: New Program Managers must attend DECIDE to succeed before attending this recertification training.
- Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP): annual and monthly training sessions to update and train NEW and Returning CACFP sponsors on current trends, topics and Policies. Organizations included are:
 - Child Care
 - Head Start Programs
 - At Risk
 - Adult Care
 - Family Day Care Homes
- Summer Food Service Program (SFSP): multiple training sessions held for School Districts and Private/Non-Profit Sponsors participating in the SFSP; held during the spring of each year.
