Educators Rising Mississippi Code of Behavior

1. Teachers will assume full responsibility that delegates abide by the EdRising MS dress code and code of behavior at all times including travel to and from conference.
2. Participants shall be prompt and prepared for all activities. All delegates shall behave in a courteous manner and refrain from language and/or actions that could bring discredit upon them, their school and/or EdRising MS.
3. Participants should wear name badges at all times.
4. Participants agree not to consume or have in possession any alcoholic beverages or non-prescription narcotics, gamble, smoke or use other tobacco products during the conference.
5. Conduct that is not conducive to an educational conference will not be tolerated. Examples of unacceptable conduct includes, but is not limited to, disrupting a businesslike atmosphere, consorting with non-conference individuals or any activities which will endanger self or others.
6. Participants are expected to attend all general sessions. Student participants shall not leave the conference/hotel premises without the permission from their teacher. Participants shall keep their teacher informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times.
7. Participants understand that girls' hotel rooms are off limits to boys and boys' rooms are off limits to girls unless a teacher is present.
8. Participants shall respect the hotel property of which they are a guest and will pay for any property damage or loss that occurs due to their stay during the conference.
9. Participants shall not use portable stereos or other loud music making devices outside their rooms and will keep the volume low while they are in rooms.
10. Participants violating any of the rules of conduct will subject their entire chapter to be unseated.

It is hoped that each student attending the conference will take this Code of Behavior with a positive attitude so that EdRising Mississippi will continue to have the respect of education, business people and the general public.
