Alignment of Training to Strategic Plan

For children to show growth and become proficient in all assessed areas, they must have high quality instruction from effective teachers. Teacher evaluations have been set in place to ensure that the best teachers are in the classroom, and to keep schools accountable for providing teachers with the resources they need to be successful. Participants in this training will learn what is expected for them to meet or exceed expectations.

Learner Outcomes

- How is the Speech Language Pathologist Assessment different from the Mississippi State Teacher Appraisal Rubric (M-STAR) form?
- Why do SLPs need a different form?
- What skills must the SLP demonstrate in order to be successful?
- What is an artifact, and where do I find it?
- How can I help my SLP if s/he is not effective?

M-STAR Overview

The Mississippi Statewide Teacher Appraisal Rubric (M-STAR) is:

- Designed to improve the professional performance of all educators.
- A system of performance assessments based on common standards to gauge teacher effectiveness, help track educational progress, identify areas of need, and improve performance throughout a teacher's career.

The Dilemma

- Although many IEP goals are related to the Standards, SLPs do not typically teach them in the same manner as a classroom teacher would.
- Speech/Language instruction is ultimately driven by the IEP, therefore it may look very different from classroom instruction.

Evaluating Your SLP

- Who was the evaluator?
- Was the evaluator knowledgeable about the SLP's roles and responsibilities?
- Did the evaluator feel confident in scoring the SLP's evaluation?
- Did the SLP get valuable feedback?

Let's Be Honest

SLPs think:

- “This doesn’t really apply to me.”
- “No one understands what I do.”
- “Do you mean I have to show lesson plans for 60 students?”
- “Manages space effectively? I’m in a closet!”

Let's Be Honest

Principals think:

- “Where does articulation therapy fall in this rubric?”
- “What does this lesson have to do with the Standards?”
- “How do I know if s/he is doing this correctly?”
- “What IS s/he doing?”

Let's Be Honest

SLPs have a unique set of skills and should be evaluated based on their particular job, similar to student services, librarians, and counselors.

History of Development

- PACE: Performance Assessment of Contributions and Effectiveness of Speech Language Pathologists (American Speech-Language-Hearing Association, 2012)
- MS Speech-Language-Hearing Association (MSHA) presented to MDE as a possible alternative to M-STAR
- Survey from MSHA membership
- MSHA leaders developed the appraisal rubric to align with M-STAR.
