

Marsha Peoples

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Marsha Peoples is the principal of East Flora Elementary School in Flora, MS. After obtaining her B.S. in elementary education from Mississippi University for Women in Columbus, MS, she spent the first 8 years of her career as a classroom teacher in Jackson Public Schools. For the next 5 years, she served outside of the classroom as a literacy specialist in Madison County Schools. In 2020, Dr. Peoples earned her Doctorate degree from Mississippi College and was named assistant principal at East Flora. Shortly thereafter in 2022, Dr. Peoples was appointed as the lead principal of East Flora Elementary.

Dr. Peoples' greatest contribution to education thus far is her dedication and passion shown in each role that she has held. Her greatest achievement to date has been leading the charge of East Flora receiving its first "A" rating during the 2024-2025 school year.

Dr. Peoples is a member of Mississippi Professional Educators (MPE), Mississippi Association of Secondary School Principals (MASSP), and the Mississippi Association of Elementary School Principals (MAESP), and the Mississippi Association of Educators (MAE).

PLATFORM

Dr. Peoples believes that all students should be given the opportunity to learn at their highest. Regardless of a child's socioeconomic background, race, religion, disability or any other factor- children have the right to be taught well. School funding matters and is essential for our future. Speaking up for fully funding education in all schools is my mission.
