VI. Dr. Lance Evans gave the following report as the State Superintendent of Education:

- He met with the House Education Committee Vice-Chair Kent McCarty, House Speaker Policy Advisor Chole Butler, and the House attorney to discuss MDE's priorities for the 2026 Legislative session. He also met with Senator Nicole Boyd.
- He and Ms. Holly Spivey met with Commissioner Sean Tindell yesterday about the Driver's Education bill.
- He met with leaders of Mississippi First about the organization's priorities and how it can support MDE initiatives. He stated that Mississippi First is a strong supporter of early childhood education.
- He met with the head of Delta Streets Academy about opportunities to support students in failing schools in the Delta. He stated Delta Streets Academy was founded as an afterschool program more than a decade ago and is now a privately funded school for boys in grades 4-12.
- He attended the Education Commission of the States (ECS) Winter Conference. The meeting included policy workshops on a range of topics including workforce readiness and postsecondary achievement, new teacher retention models, supporting early childhood educators, and expanding K-12 and postsecondary math pathways. ECS provides support and services to all U.S. States and territories to help education leaders create effective education policy from early care and education to workforce development.
- He stated that New York Times national educator reporter Sarah Mervoch traveled to Mississippi to spend the day in a literacy support school and meet with MDE leaders. Her story focuses on Mississippi's literacy work and the accountability system.
- He stated ABC News traveled to Mississippi to visit two schools in the metro area and interview MDE's State Literacy Director, Dr. Amanda Malone about our literacy work. The story is scheduled to be broadcast nationally in January.
- He spoke to the media:
 - Interviewed on SuperTalk Radio and WLBT about MDE's priorities for the 2026 Legislative session.
 - Interviewed by Mississippi Today and WTVA in Tupelo about the state's takeover of Okolona Separate School District. He shared with the reporters that last week we informed 19 staff members who will be affected by a Reduction in Force (RIF) as of January 1st. He stated the total district personnel are being reduced from 105 to 86 and MDE is working with surrounding districts to try and find the staff jobs.
- He stated beginning January 2026, MDE is proud to introduce a new way to celebrate both our nation and the arts. He stated that our State Board meetings will open with a recorded performance of The National Anthem to one of Mississippi's Top Honor Choirs. This will take place before the Pledge of Allegiance and the Invocation. He thanked Dr. Hannah Ardrey for reaching out with this idea and collaborating with MDE to make this possible. He also thanked Mr. Limeul Eubanks, who serves as MDE's Director of PreK-12 Arts Education. He stated MDE is excited to showcase Mississippi's talented students and their directors as part of our commitment to the power of the arts.

- He recognized Dr. Sonja Robertson, MDE's Executive Director of School Improvement. Dr. Robertson is retiring on December 31st with 10 years of service at MDE and a total of 35 years of service in education. He thanked her for her leadership over the years and a lifetime of service to Mississippi students and educators.

VII. Report of the Chair

- Mr. Miller stated that yesterday the Board had a training session with Dr. Paolo DeMaria, President and Chief Executive Officer of NASBE, and they received an update on the Strategic Plan.

VIII. Reports of Student Representatives

Mr. Crosby Parker stated he had been accepted to MIT in the fall. He reported about the new mentorship program in an elementary school and the development of a guide for creating new programs across the state.

Ms. Michelle Xie reflected on the different opportunities and experiences she has had serving as the junior representative.

IX. Reports on State Board of Education Subcommittee meetings

Mr. Matt Mayo, Chair of the Internal Accountability Subcommittee, met on Thursday, December 11, and selected the Ad-Hoc Steering Committee to screen the junior representative applications due on January 30, 2026. He stated the Department released the application on December 8, 2025. The results will be brought to the Board at the May Board meeting. Mr. Mayo stated they were given a brief update on the Early Childhood Classroom audit and recommended for approval the internal audit charter that is being presented to the Board today.

Ms. Mary Werner, Chair of the Workforce/Career and Technology Education Subcommittee, stated they met today and were given an update on the Workforce Development Model. She stated that this model is integrated with the existing frameworks and the teachers do not have to do extra work they already do it. Ms. Werner stated that there are eight eco systems in the state and they identify specific jobs in each area so the curriculum can be taught to the students so they can get jobs in their areas.
